

STATE MASS		COUNTY ESSEX	TOWN OR VICINITY NEWBURYPORT 89 High St. -91 HOUSE	6s 5p
INDEX NUMBER MASS. 5-NEWBP 23		MONUMENT MOULTON PLACE (GARDEN)
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE		H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. MASS-216	History-Laid out 1840 by an English gardener named Clifford. Double house, 89, 91 High St., built 1809, by Joseph Moulton, who occupied No. 91, and his son William who occupied No. 89. Always owned by members of the family. Present owners, Mrs. Ernest H. Noyes (Elizabeth C. Moulton) No. 89, and her brother
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	✓
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS H.A.B.S.	✓
FN-23 (2)
GPO 6-8369		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

William Moulton, No. 91.

Description-Formal garden known as the "Double Hourglass" lined with box.

References-Gardens of Colony and State, Lockwood, 1931.

WHITE PINE, VOL. III, NO. 3, p. 12

HOWELLS, ARCH. HERITAGE OF MERRIMACK, FIG. 65 (MEAS. DR.) 66, 67-68 (MEAS. DR.)

R. Newton Mayall. 59 Parker St., Cambridge
Feb. 7, 1938.